ACCIDENT ON THE GRAVITY.

Miss Ellen McDonough Frightfully Injured by Being Struck by Train. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough, of 71 Gordon avenue, Miss Ellen McDonough, about 18 years of age, left her home yesterday morning, and started for the high school, where she was taking a post graduate course. While walking along the Gravity track near her home she was struck by the empty cars of a freight train coming from No. 2 on the Gravity to the railroad yard. She was thrown between the tracks with her right leg lying across the rail, so that six cars passed over it. The limb was terribly mangled and it is feared that some internal injuries have been received. Besides these injuries the collar bone and some of the ribs were broken. Her father was at work in his yard only a few feet distant when the accident occurred. He made his way beneath the car, not knowing that the sufferer was his daughter until he had removed her from the place. Dr. J. A. Kelly happened to be in the vicinity and at once used every effort to bring relief. Dr. J. S. Niles was called and everything possible for her comfort was done. It is not yet possible to attempt to amputate the limb until the reaction renders it safe. It is feared that she may not rally from the shock. Miss McDonough was one of the most active and promising pupils in the high school class and her schoolmates feel deep sympathy for her and her family.

Funeral of Patrick Healey. A long procession of life long neighbors and friends followed the remains of Patrick Healey to St. Rose's church yesterday morning, where a solemn nigh mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Griffin. An appropriate sermon was delivered. William Snyder and Thomas Monohan bore the handsome floral pieces, gifts of his fellow workmen and relatives. The pall-bearers were old friends, men who had been associated with him in the Delaware and Hudson gravity shop. They consisted of the following gentlemen: George McDonough, T. P. McNulty, Jesse Bagley, John Langan, William Tonkin, Anthony Duffy, Patrick Hart and Frank Shannon. Among the perout of town were: Mesdames B. T. Duffy and A. B. Nealon, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Nealon and Mrs. Jones, of Plymouth; Peter Nealon, of Peckville; Mrs. Gilboy and Lou James, of Duryen; Miss Bridget Healey, of Wilkes-Barre; Mesdames Healey and Curley, of Pittston, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell, of Scranton Accident at the Northwest Mines. A Tatal accident occurred on Thurs-day evening at the Northwest mines, when an Austrian, John Palmer, received injuries from which he died. After finishing his work on his way out of the mine he fell under a trip of cars, receiving severe wounds upon the ead. He was taken to the hospital. but died early yesterday morning.

THE NEWARK

For a large retail shoe business is something which requires more serious thought and care than most people are aware of. We have to consider several important rules, namely: quality, variety, price and exclusiveness. All of these distinctively charac terizes our business. Our store is a schoolroom of styles in footwear, and our prices are object lessons for economical buyers. We ask a fair and impartial comparison and the result will be your patronage and good will. We wish particularly to call your attention to our special line of summer footwear, all the latest novelties and colors, and not an undesirable style among them.
